

New HSK

Vocabulary List

Level 1~3

Read This First

Dear Chinese learners,

Whether you're just starting out or pushing toward fluency, having the right foundation matters. This vocabulary list was built to give you exactly that — a clear, structured view of every word the New HSK expects you to know.

Based on the latest official outline

This list follows the New HSK Official Examination Outline (Dec 2025). If you've studied Chinese before, you'll notice the new HSK looks quite different — the word counts have grown significantly at every level:

| | HSK 1 | HSK 2 | HSK 3 | HSK 4 | HSK 5 | HSK 6 | HSK 7-9 |
|---------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|---------|
| HSK | 150 | 300 | 600 | 1,200 | 2,500 | 5,000 | X |
| New HSK | 300 | 500 | 1,000 | 2,000 | 3,600 | 5,400 | 11,000 |

More than just a word list

Following the official word list, we've included different parts of speech and senses for each entry, so you can see how many meanings and usages you already know — or still need to learn.

A self-assessment tool, not a textbook

The official HSK outline gives you the words. We went a step further. Our academic team spent 4 weeks enriching every single entry with English translations and part-of-speech labels — a layer of clarity you won't find in the official materials. Because knowing what a word means is only half the story; knowing how it works is what makes it stick.

Use it as a compass, not a shortcut

Think of this list as a self-assessment tool: a way to see where you stand and spot the gaps. It's not designed to replace real learning — no word list can. For deeper practice, example sentences, and guided lessons, that's what we're here for. Follow us on Instagram @goeastmandarin for new content and tips, and we'll keep building on this together.

Happy Learning!
